

SWISHER HYGIENE INC.
Audit Committee Charter

Purpose

The purpose of the Audit Committee is to:

- oversee Swisher's accounting and financial reporting processes, Swisher's internal systems of control and audits of Swisher's consolidated financial statements;
- oversee Swisher's relationship with its independent auditors, including appointing or changing Swisher's auditors and ensuring their independence; and
- provide oversight regarding significant financial matters, including Swisher's tax planning, treasury policies, currency exposures, dividends and share issuance and repurchases.

In carrying out Audit Committee functions, the Audit Committee must maintain free and open communication with Swisher's independent auditors and Swisher's management.

Appointment and Membership Requirements

The Audit Committee shall be made up of at least three (3) members of the Board of Directors. Each member of the Committee shall be an "independent" director (as such term is defined from time to time under the requirements or guidelines for audit committee service under applicable securities laws and the rules of any stock exchange on which the Company's securities are then listed for trading) and none of the members shall have participated in the preparation of the financial statements of the Company or any current subsidiaries of the Company at any time over the past three years. Audit Committee members are appointed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors decides the Audit Committee's exact number and can at any time remove or replace a Committee member. The Board of Directors will also make all determinations regarding satisfaction of the membership requirements described below.

The Audit Committee will comply with all applicable provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and the rules of any stock exchange on which the Company's securities are then listed for trading.

At least one member of the Audit Committee must have past employment experience in finance or accounting, requisite professional certification in accounting, or any other comparable experience or background, which results in the individual's financial sophistication, including being or having been a chief executive officer, chief financial officer or other senior officer with financial oversight responsibilities.

Each member of the Audit Committee must be able to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including Swisher's balance sheet, income statement and cash flow statement.

Responsibilities

The Audit Committee's main responsibility is to oversee Swisher's financial reporting process (including Swisher's systems of internal controls). The Audit Committee believes that Swisher's policies and procedures should remain flexible in order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances. The following list includes the Audit Committee's main recurring processes in carrying out its responsibilities. This list is intended as a guide, with the understanding that the Audit Committee can supplement it as appropriate, consistent with the requirements of the SEC and the rules of any stock exchange on which the Company's securities are then listed for trading.

1. Hiring and Selection of Auditors. The Audit Committee will directly appoint, retain and compensate Swisher's independent auditors. These independent auditors will report directly to, and be responsible to, the Audit Committee.
2. Approval of Audit and Non-Audit Services. The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing services provided by the independent auditors, including establishing a policy to decide what services will be performed and the approval requirements for these services.
3. Auditor Independence. The Audit Committee is responsible for making sure it reviews at least annually a formal written statement explaining all relationships between the outside auditors and Swisher and its subsidiaries, consistent with the applicable requirements of applicable auditing regulatory and professional bodies regarding the independent auditor's communications with the Audit Committee concerning independence. The Audit Committee will maintain an active dialogue with the independent auditors, covering any disclosed relationships or services that may impact their objectivity and independence. The Audit Committee will review all proposed hires by Swisher or its subsidiaries of management level or higher individuals formerly employed by the independent auditors who provided services to Swisher. The Audit Committee will take, or recommend to the Board of Directors that it take, appropriate actions to oversee the independence of Swisher's outside auditors.
4. Oversight of Auditors; Audit Plan. The Audit Committee will be responsible for Swisher's relationship with its independent auditors. The Audit Committee will discuss with the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their audits and other financial reviews. The Audit Committee will oversee the rotation of the audit partners of Swisher's independent auditors as required by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and the rules of the SEC. The Audit Committee will be responsible for reviewing and resolving any disagreements between Swisher's management and the independent auditors regarding financial controls or financial reporting.
5. Internal Audit Department Oversight. The Audit Committee will oversee performance of the internal audit function. The Audit Committee will meet periodically with the Director of Internal Audit Department to foster open communication. The Audit Committee will review the regular reports to management prepared by internal audit, as well as management's response.
6. Internal Controls; Risk Assessment. The Audit Committee will discuss with management and the independent auditors the design, implementation, adequacy and effectiveness of Swisher's internal controls. The Audit Committee will also meet separately with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations. The Audit Committee will provide oversight over the system of internal controls, relying upon management's and the independent auditors' representations and assessments of, and recommendations regarding, these controls. The Audit Committee will review any required disclosures regarding Swisher's internal controls.
7. Quarterly and Annual Financial Statements. The Audit Committee will review and discuss with management the annual audited financial statements and quarterly financial statements and the notes and Managements' Discussion and Analysis accompanying such financial statements and any other disclosure documents or regulatory filings of the Company containing or accompanying financial information of the Company. The Audit Committee will be responsible for making a recommendation to the Board of Directors that Swisher's annual audited financial statements should be included in Swisher's Annual Report.
8. Proxy Report. The Audit Committee will prepare any report required to be prepared by it for inclusion in any proxy statement of Swisher under SEC rules and regulations.
9. Earnings Announcements. Prior to their distribution, the Audit Committee will review and discuss with management Swisher's quarterly earnings announcements and other public announcements regarding Swisher's results of operations.
10. Critical Accounting Policies. The Audit Committee will obtain, review and discuss reports from the independent auditors about:
 - all critical accounting policies and practices which Swisher will use, and the qualities of those policies and practices;

- all alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that the auditors have discussed with management officials of Swisher, ramifications of the use of these alternative disclosures and treatments, the treatment preferred by the independent auditors and the reasons for favoring that treatment; and
- other material written communications between the independent auditors and Swisher management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences.

The Audit Committee will also discuss with the independent auditors and then disclose those matters whose disclosure is required by applicable auditing regulatory and professional bodies, including any difficulties the independent auditors encountered in the course of the audit work, any restrictions on the scope of the independent auditors' activities or on their access to requested information, and any significant disagreements with management.

11. CEO and CFO Certifications. The Audit Committee will review the CEO and CFO disclosure and certifications under Sections 302 and 906 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.
12. Transactions with Related Persons. The Audit Committee will review and approve all transactions with related persons, as described in Item 404 of Regulation S-K under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
13. Anonymous Complaint Handling Process. The Audit Committee will have responsibility for establishment and oversight of processes and procedures for (a) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints about accounting, internal accounting controls or audit matters and (b) confidential and anonymous submissions by employees concerning questionable accounting, auditing and internal control matters. All such relevant complaints and submissions must be reported to the Audit Committee.
14. Ability to Investigate; Retention of Advisors; Funding. The Audit Committee has the power to investigate any matter brought to its attention, with full access to all Swisher books, records, facilities and employees. The Audit Committee also has the power to retain independent counsel or other experts and advisors. The Audit Committee will have funding sufficient to compensate its counsel, experts and advisors.
15. Annual Evaluation. The Audit Committee will review annually its own performance against responsibilities outlined in this charter and as otherwise established by the Board of Directors.
16. Review of Charter. The Audit Committee will review and reassess the adequacy of this charter at least once a year.

It is not the Audit Committee's responsibility to prepare and certify Swisher's financial statements, to guarantee the independent auditors' report, or to guarantee other disclosures by Swisher. These are the fundamental responsibilities of management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee members are not full-time Swisher employees and do not perform the functions of auditors and accountants.

Restrictions on Independent Auditors Services

Swisher's independent auditors cannot perform any of the following services for Swisher:

- bookkeeping or other services related to Swisher's accounting records or financial statements;
- financial information systems design and implementation;
- appraisal or valuation services, fairness opinions or contribution-in-kind reports;
- actuarial services;
- internal audit outsourcing services;
- management or human resources functions;
- broker or dealer, investment adviser or investment banking services;
- legal services and expert services unrelated to the audit; and

- any other service that the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board of Directors determines, by regulation, would impair the independence of Swisher's auditors.

Compensation

The Board of Directors determines the amount of any fees, if any, that Audit Committee members receive for their services. These fees can include retainers or per meeting fees. Audit Committee members cannot receive any compensation from Swisher except the fees they receive for their services as members of the Board of Directors or any committee of the Board of Directors, and except for reimbursement of their reasonable expenses.

Meetings and Minutes

The Audit Committee will meet at least four times each year, and will keep minutes of each meeting. The Audit Committee decides when and where it will meet, and must deliver a copy of this schedule in advance to the Board of Directors.

Unless the Board of Directors or this Charter provides otherwise, the Audit Committee can make, alter or repeal rules for the conduct of its business. In the absence of these rules, the Audit Committee will conduct its business in the same way the Board of Directors conducts its business.

Delegation of Authority

The Audit Committee can delegate to one or more members of the Audit Committee the authority to pre-approve audit and permissible non-audit services, as long as this pre-approval is presented to the full Audit Committee at its scheduled meetings.

The Audit Committee can delegate to one or more members of the Audit Committee the authority to pre-approve related party transactions, as long as this pre-approval is presented to the full Audit Committee at its scheduled meetings.

The Audit Committee cannot delegate its responsibilities to non-committee members.
